Thank you to our parents!

I wish to extend on behalf of my Cadets a thank you to each and every one that was able to be with us today. I also wish to thank my staff for another excellent training year, this Corps truly is a labour of love, and without my devoted dedicated staff we could not make it! Good luck to staff and cadets that are off to summer camp this year, we'll keep the home fires burning! See you on 10 Sep 02

Our Reviewing officer

Lieutenant Colonel D.A. Fraser, CD

LCol Dave Fraser was born to a military family on October 31st, 1958 in Zweibrucken, Federal Republic of Germany. He was educated throughout North America, and graduated high school in 1973. He later obtained a diploma from the University of Guelph in Agriculture Technology, and a diploma from Confederation College in Agricultural Equipment Maintenance.

In 1975 LCol Fraser joined the Canadian Forces and in 1977, transferred to 116 Independent Field Battery in Kenora, ON. He served in that unit in a number of positions, both in Canada and overseas. In 1992-93, the then Capt Fraser served with 1 RCHA in Cyprus as part of the UN Forces in Cyprus (UNFICYP) OPERATION SNOWGOOSE 58. In 1993, he was appointed CO of 116 Independent Field battery, RCA.

In civilian life, LCol Fraser is self-employed, owning a diving business in Kenora, and a farm in Rainy River, ON. He also teaches part time at Confederation College. He is married to Laureen Parsons, formerly of Dwight, ON, and they reside in Kenora
